S. Corliss, in San Jose, Cal., arrived here Monday and will make a short visit to her brother, Geo. A. Cheney, before returning to her home in Oxford.

Commander A. L. Cheney went to North Montpelier last Saturday, where he was present in the evening at a camp fire of the Sons of Veterans society of that place. He was accompanied as far as Worcester by Mrs. Cheney. They returned Sunday accompanied by Mrs. Cheney's mother, Mrs. M. S. Massey, who has been visiting in Worcester for sometime.

Woman's Club Meeting.

At the regular meeting of the Woman's Club last Monday evening there was a very good attendance. Mrs. J.
J. Billings had a very interesting paper on the "Origin of the Theatre," and Mrs. H. C. Fisk read a delightful report of the State Federation of Woman's Clubs held at St. Johnsbury last week. Owing to illness Mrs. A.
A. Niles was unable to read her paper, but will have it a later date. The next meeting will be held Oct. 26.

Next Tuesday Evening.

Next Tuesday evening at G. A. R. hall a public meeting will be held, for which occasion a special program has been arranged, which will consist, in part, of speeches from several of the California excursionists. All are cordially invited to join with the members of the G. A. R. and S. of V. in making the occasion a pleasant one.

The Morrisville Band.

The members of the Morrisville Military Band, who have been working together for the past two years to keep the organization together, have formally turned their instruments and music over to the village.
This is not done with any idea of disbanding, but for the purpose of holding the instruments for band use and to prevent any member, who may leave town, from appropriating any of the band property. This is a commendable move and shows proper interest of the members in maintaining an organization which, when given the right kind of support, is a credit to any town. The boys will continue their practice meetings during the winter and it is up to the people of Morrisville to let no opportunity pass in which they may show their appreciation of the endeavors of the members to keep the band together.

Death of Mrs. W. W. Peck.

Although not unexpected this community was shocked and saddened to learn of the death of Mrs. W. W.
Peck, which occurred at Somerset, Vt., last Thursday evening at about nine o'clock, after an illness of about three months. In her death Morrisville loses one of her best-known and most highly respected citizens. Mrs.
Peck went to Somerset the first of June, where Mr. Peck had large lumber interests, requiring his entire attention. She was taken ill about July 1, suffering from an acute attack of Bright's disease, aggravated by a heart trouble. She had been in a critical condition most of the time since, but her condition was slightly improved until about two weeks ago, when new complication set in and an operation for abscess of the stomach was performed last Tuesday, which was not successful.

The deceased was born in Barre 47 years ago, the daughter of Josiah and Sarah Peck. She was united in marriage to W. W. Peck in 1875.
To their union was born two children, Fred C. Peck, who is engaged in the lumber business with his father at Somerset, and Miss Blanche Peck.
Besides the immediate family Mrs.
Peck leaves one sister, Mrs. Chas.
La Page of Barre.

The remains arrived here from Somerset Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock and the funeral was held at the Peck residence on Park Street at 11 o'clock, the Rev. Geo. N. Kellogg, assisted by Rev. Dr. Booth, officiating. A large number of the members of the local O. E. S. and W. R. C., of which societies Mrs. Peck was a member, attended in a body. The bearers were C. A. Gile, T. C. Cheney, Dr.
Rublee and H. W. McAllister. Interment was in the old cemetery. The funeral offerings were large and beautiful, and included a large pillow of flowers given by the mill hands at Somerset, a star given by the O. E. S. and a beautiful collection from the W. R. C.

Those present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. LaPage of Barre, Dr. Geo. W. Bradley and wife of No. Adams, Mass., and Miss Gertrude Fife of Wolcott.

Ex-Gov. Geo. W. Hendee will go to Stowe to-morrow, where the arbitration case of N. Biglow vs Ira Chamberlain will be resumed before him.

The couple that got married yesterday successfully eluded their friends by arranging to have the express train stop for them at Tenney Bridge.
The groom, however, was so frustrated that he forgot his money and telephoned for it to day. It is said that the other couple who leave to-night will not escape so easily as their friends have scouts posted in all directions, including the "flag station" at Tenney Bridge.

Mrs. M. S. Eddy has been critically ill for the past week and underwent an operation last Friday for cholecystectomy, Dr. Wheeler of Burlington, assisted by Drs. Genge and Bates performing the operation.
The operation was successful and although the chances for the recovery of the patient were at first thought to be very slim, later reports are more encouraging. Owing to the absence of Dr. Rublee in Somerset, Dr. Genge of Hyde Park, was called and is now in attendance. A trained nurse from Burlington is caring for the patient.

Autumn Weddings.

SARGENT—RUBLEE.

Yesterday afternoon at the home of Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Rublee on Main Street, occurred the marriage of Walter M. Sargent and Miss Edna S.
Rublee, both of this place. Promptly at five o'clock, to the strains of Lohengrin wedding march, played by Miss Gertrude Fife of Wolcott, the bride couple entered the parlor, which was most artistically trimmed with evergreen, where the Rev. G. N.
Kellogg performed the ceremony using the favorite Episcopal ring service, Miss Hazel Fisk acting as ring bearer. The bride was becomingly gowned in white muslin de soie, trimmed with embroidered lace. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Emilie C. Rublee as bride's maid, who wore white figured silk muslin over blue. Hon. F. G. Fleetwood, Sec'y of State, acted as best man. The happy couple left in the evening for a short wedding trip to Quebec, and from there will go to Island Pond for a short stay with the groom's brother, Dr. Howard Sargent.

Mr. Sargent is one of Morrisville's rising young business men. He is a native of Stowe but came here to school and after graduating entered the Union Savings Bank & Trust Co., where he still remains and at present is its teller.

Miss Rublee has always lived here in town and is the second daughter of Dr. C. C. Rublee. She graduated from People's Academy in '96, since which time she has taught in this school, first in the primary grade and later as assistant to Prof. Beebe.

Mr. and Mrs. Sargent will return from their wedding trip about Nov.
1st, when they will be at home to their many friends at the home of Mrs. B. O. Shaw on Wolcott street.
Morrisville people are to be congratulated on having these young people remain here in town. The presents were many and beautiful. We extend our most hearty congratulations.
Those present from out of town were Mrs. Babcock of Montpelier, Miss Marys of Barre, Mr. and Mrs.
Jackson Sargent of Stowe, and Mrs.
W. J. Bixelow of Burlington.

PALMER—RUBLEE.

This afternoon at five o'clock Mr.
Bloomfield A. Palmer of Wilder, Vt., was united in marriage to Miss Emilie C. Rublee of this place, at the home of the bride's father, Dr. C. C.
Rublee. To the strains of the wedding march played by the groom's sister, Miss Lillian Palmer of Newport, the bride couple entered the parlor, where the Rev. G. N. Kellogg awaited them and performed the ceremony, using the Episcopal ring service. The bride, who was given away by her father, was attired in a brown traveling suit and was accompanied by Miss Edith Dodge, who wore blue. Raymond Palmer, of St.
Albans, a brother of the groom, acted as best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Palmer go to Quebec, where they will join Mr. and Mrs.
Sargent and before their return will visit the groom's home at Mystic, P.
Q., and friends in Burlington, after which they will be at home in Wilder.
Mr. Palmer is a wide-awake young railroad man and was for a number of years employed in the station at this place and while here he made many friends. About two years ago he was given the charge of the station at Wilder, a position which he now holds.

Miss Rublee is the youngest daughter of Dr. C. C. Rublee. She is one of Morrisville's most popular young ladies and her departure from town will be regretted by everyone. She has for several years been employed by Geo. P. Drowne & Co. and during the past year has acted as cashier.

Those present from out of town were Raymond Palmer of St. Albans, Mrs. Babcock of Montpelier, Misses Lillian Palmer and May Lunt of Newport, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ellis of St.
Albans and Mr. Palmer of Burlington.

DECELL—FARRAR.

Last evening, at the home of Mrs.
Delene Decell, occurred the marriage of her son, Walter Decell, to Miss Maud Farrar, who has made her home for some time with Mr. and Mrs. C.
L. Shaw. The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. S. Eddy and the happy couple left this morning on the excursion to Boston. They will make their home in Morrisville, where Mr. Decell is employed by the Warren Leather Company.

When the Minstrels Come to Town.

It is a safe wager that the person who misses the Elite Lady Minstrels will have something best described as a "lasting regret," for unless all signs fall this is going to be one of the most novel and pleasing entertainments ever enjoyed by a Morrisville audience. There will be something doing from opening chorus to the final drop of the curtain. That women can keep a secret is being clearly demonstrated by the manner in which the many novel features are being sacredly guarded, and great surprises are in store for the "fellows" beyond a doubt.

HYDE PARK.

Isn't this glorious weather?
Prof. Henderson spent Saturday last at Burlington.

D. S. Stanford of this office is visiting relatives in Hardwick.

Miss Linnie Holbrook is visiting her brother, W. N. Holbrook.

Repairs are being made upon the "Barracks" at the West End.
Miss Sarah B. Chapin of Essex was a visitor in town last Saturday.

Palmer Blake has a very neat meat market at his residence on Prospect Ave.

Mrs. Noyes Wood is spending a few days at Randolph with Mrs. Tewks-bury.

James Murch and wife of Lebanon, N. H., are spending a week at Lyman Minor's.

P. O. Keefe of Peabody, Mass., transacted his business here last Saturday.

student, has gone to Boston to seek his fortune.

Mrs. Giblett has opened a dressmaking establishment here. See Business Notice.

Mrs. Sam'l Miller has been called to Waterville by the serious illness of her mother.

The Messrs. Danio have placed the butter-box machinery in their shop on Church street.

Mrs. Etta Shackett and daughter of Eden, visited at V. L. Boddgett's a part of last week.

Sheriff Robbins and Capt. Waite transacted official business at Waterbury Center to-day.

Mrs. Alice Young and son are spending several days with relatives at Enosburgh Falls.

Hugh Underwood of St. Johnsbury spent Saturday last here, visiting his many young friends.

Mrs. Sarah Bennett and her granddaughter, Iva, spent Sunday with relatives at Fairfield.

Daniel Perkins of Newport is here on one of his semi-occasional visits, a guest of Russell Page.

The Woodmen held a special meet-last night, at which a candidate was initiated into the mysteries of that order.

The Woman's Club meets next Monday evening with Mrs. McFarland.
Members please take notice of time and place.

A fair number attended the Episcopal services in the Cong'l vestry last evening, conducted by Rev. Forsyth of Middlebury.

The Cemetery Commissioners have done some very nice work in the village cemetery in laying out and grading the new annex.

R. F. D. Carrier Holbrook spies occasionally a partridge on his route, and as he carries a gun with him it is no rarity for him to bring home a bird.

Noyes' Wood has a great stock of fall goods, just from market. He has a fine assortment of ladies' furnishings which Mrs. Wood will be pleased to show.

Keep in mind the fact that this is the last month for the payment of taxes. They must be paid. Death and taxes are the two greatest certainities.
